Once reviewed and approved by the OAB...

Course becomes individual course, slated for cyclical review every 5-7 years

Course slated for cyclical review every 5-7 years. With minor revision to elements conducted face-to-face, can come in for desk review for approval as a web or blended course

District-wide template is revised as necessary

Course becomes individual course, slated for cyclical review every 5-7 years

Desk review allows adoption as a model for an additional two years of review date. If major changes are required and/or indicated, course will be slated for cyclical review every 5-7 years

Course becomes individual course, slated for cyclical review every 5-7 years

*New courses are defined as new courses that have never been taught in a web/blended/hybrid format by a new instructor prior to the desired semester or a course in which substantial revision to the original course has occurred.

All course reviews are subject to deadlines as indicated on the OAB website or a request for an extension may be made and approved by the OAB.